

Mourdock says he is pleased with his time and might try to run the Boston Marathon again next year.

updated: 4/22/2008 11:53:30 AM

State Treasurer Completes Boston Marathon

InsideIndianaBusiness.com Report

It took four hours, 55 minutes and 38 seconds, but Indiana State Treasurer Richard Mourdock finished this year's Boston Marathon. The race was held yesterday. He finished 20,403 out of slightly more than 25,000 runners in his age group.

Source: Inside INdiana Business

Continued Below...

INDIANA BUSINESS NEWS

- Publication Ranks Colts as Top Franchise
- Transportation Company Expands
- Industrial Facility to Create New Jobs in Northwest Indiana
- [\[UPDATED\] Housing Summit Set For Merrillville](#)
- WellPoint Reports First Quarter Results
- Governor to Make Jobs Announcements
- American Axle Strike Prompts Layoffs at Warsaw Plant
- Gas Prices Boosting IndyGo Use
- IU Installing New Wireless Hardware

More News...

Press Release

INDIANAPOLIS (April 22, 2008) – State Treasurer Richard Mourdock competed in the Boston Marathon, the world's oldest annual marathon, yesterday morning in Boston, Massachusetts.

"Up to yesterday, I had competed in 6 marathons in the past 8 years, but the Boston Marathon was definitely the most challenging but exhilarating one I have completed to date," exclaimed Treasurer Mourdock.

"I was pleased with my time, and I wouldn't mind trying to improve on my performance next year.

Treasurer Mourdock finished 20,403 out of 25,283 runners and 1,596 out of 4,227 runners for his age group.

Source: Office of the Indiana Treasurer

  